I will go, I will go

I've a buckle on my belt, a sword in my scabbard,
A red coat on my back and a shilling in my pocket,
I will go, I will go.

TUNE

CHORUS - I will go, I will go, when the fighting is over
                To the land o' McLeod that I left to be a soldier,
                I will go, I will go.

When they put us all on board the lasses they were singing
But the tears came to their eyes when the bells they started ringing
I will go, I will go.

When we landed on the shore and saw the foreign heather,
We knew that some would fall and would stay there forever,
I will go, I will go.
