

TUNE AA

D
Good morning old friend, It's just us once again,
G D A
How our laughter left both of us weeping.
D
And we both fought like fiends, Through the clubs and the streets,
G D A D
Now the dawn light is silently creeping.

TUNE AA

Well we danced and we danced, With our pride in our pants,
To the music the night air was playing.
But the women weren't charmed, Would not lay in our arms,
In this gutter the bed that we sleep in.

A D
And now we must part and it saddens my heart
A G D
But together again we shall roam,
A D
So lets dust off our best, put our legs to the test,
A A A/G A/F# A/E
And I'll let the bells ring me home

TUNE AABB

As I unlock the gate, I smile at my fate,
I can foresee the tone of my greeting.
With my key in the door, As my feet leave the floor,
I'm in for one hell of a beating.

But oh what a night, I held you so tight,
 And together again we shall roam.
 Though the women are fine with a bottle of wine,
 I'll let the bells ring me home.

TUNE AABB

Some time after noon as I lie in my room,
 I note that the world is not spinning.
 I say "Never again" and won't think of my friends,
 Till the blue light shows 'message receiving'.

The pub's got it right, it's 2 for 1 night,
 And the jukebox is updated too.
 So I'll live for the now and get through it somehow
 I'll let the bells ring me home.

TUNE AABB

The musical score is written for guitar in D major (one sharp) and 3/4 time. It consists of two systems, each with an A section and a B section. The first system starts at measure 1 and ends at measure 10. The second system starts at measure 11 and ends at measure 20. Chord diagrams are provided above the staff, and fret numbers are indicated below the strings. The A sections are marked with '1.' and the B sections with '2.'. The final chord in the second system is D.
